JUNE 2019

Easter, Ascension, Pentecost....What's Next?

As we come to the end of the Easter season, so many of us find ourselves sinking back into the old ways of doing things. The reality of our sacramental and liturgical lives is that we are given seasons for change and not so that we can return to our old ways. This wonderful season of Easter last for seven weeks so that we can become accustomed to a new way of life. So why do we tend to revert to our old ways?

I suspect that much of it is to see if we really miss the way it use to be or maybe because we find ourselves at the end of a celebration and we begin to wonder, what comes next? If the latter is where you find yourself, then the answer is simple to find. We are called to a season of growing in our faith.

Easter is a foundation that built for our faith to grow upon and so now that we have had the joy and celebration of Easter, we need to water the seed of faith in our live and let them grow.

Our lives are about transformation and now is the time to see the fruit of our lives take shape and produce. Let us embrace this season of growth and watch the wonderful things that the Lord has in store for us as we bear His fruit to the world.

Does the Lord delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the Lord? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams." (1 Samuel 15:22)

"To do righteousness and justice is more desirable to the Lord than sacrifice." (Proverbs 21:3)

"For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgement of God rather than burnt offerings." (Hosea 6:6)*

Question: Why did Jesus quote this verse in Matthew 9:13 and Matthew 12:7?
