MARCH 2020

“Living Lent”

All too many people go through the season of Lent the same way they go to the Dentist. They endure it for the sake of something better is on the other side. Sadly, this robs people of the joy, and more importantly, the benefits of truly living out Lent. Lent is a focused time of penance and reconciliation, and unless you have reached spiritual perfection, there is a real benefit that can come from it.

I have been speaking the past couple of weeks about a Spiritual Spring Cleaning which gets our “house”, which is the Temple of the Holy Spirit, into tip-top shape. This is what Lent is all about. We need to take the time to pull all the “stuff” out of our closets and examine them to see if it really belongs here. Just as there are things in our physical house that need to be parsed from time to time, so it is with our Spiritual lives. Things just have a way of creeping into where they do not belong or are just not beneficial and need to be gotten rid of.

I pray that this Lent will be different than others you have experienced. I pray that you find joy in the decluttering process of your Spiritual life. I pray that you will find Lent a time of living and not a time of suffering, and I pray that the life you find is one with Jesus taking up the most space.

Peace and Blessings,
