“Summer Breaks”

It is common for people to take a break from some of the normal aspects of their lives during the summer months. Our children get a break from school. Many people will take summer vacations. There are so many more outdoor activities to be involved in and the list goes on. Sadly, this spills over into the spiritual life as well. Church attendance historically drops during the summer months and potentially our devotion to our faith may take a break as well.

This brings to mind that we need to have a clear catechized understanding of why Sunday worship is so very important to our spiritual journey. Although Sunday may seem like the time to get our batteries recharged, it is really our opportunity to give thanks to God along with the fullness of the Body of Christ. As Saint Paul says, “when one part of the body hurts, the whole-Body hurts and when one part of the Body rejoices, the whole-Body rejoices”. I would suggest when one part of the Body is absent it leaves a hole in the Body. As the Body worships the Lord, His blessing flow from Heaven onto and into the Body.

May we find this summer a time of rest and relaxation as it should be, while keeping our spiritual lives engaged at the very heart of our being. May the Lord grant us all His blessings, His peace, His mercy, and His love so that as we gather together it is Him whom we celebrate and give glory to through our corporate worship of the KING.

Peace and Blessings,

“And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all He has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind He will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship Him. Don’t copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God’s will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.

Because of the privilege and authority God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don’t think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us. Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, so it is with Christ’s body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

(Romans 12:1-5)
