SEPTEMBER 2024

“New Beginnings”

As the seasons of our life go through change, we are given an opportunity. We can either look at what has past or embrace what is to come. As our children go back to school and we settle into another season, which one will we choose?

King Solomon gives us insight into this in the book of Ecclesiastes. “To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.”

What does this season in life hold for you. I know that we are also in a special season of our spiritual life as we begin to look towards the end of our Liturgical year. It is a season of evaluation and expectation. What have we learned and how have we grown in our relationship with the Lord?

Let us take time in this season to cherish where we are and live in anticipation of where the Lord is leading us. The world may be full of anxiety and distractions, but the Lord has filled us with promises and blessings. His way IS the better way, now and forever .

Peace and Blessings,

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace

2 Timothy 1:7

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.
