“A New Year”

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Yes, Christmas is still upon us, and we continue the great celebration of the Incarnation of Christ. The new year we embark on is one that offers us great opportunities as well as challenges. How we handle those challenges will be a testimony of the impact that Christ has had and continues to have on our lives. May we all face life challenges and opportunities in the spirit of our faith that Jesus Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords. And may this allow us to weather the storms of life.

As we journey beyond Christmas let us keep in mind that the battle against our flesh is a daily endeavor and we must always stay on guard. Saint Paul tells us to understand that our flesh is weak, but our spirit is strong. Let us allow our spirit to be strengthened to the point that it overcomes our flesh. May this coming year be one that strengthens our spirit in Christ and allows us to conquer the weaknesses of our flesh that we might live abiding in His will and walking in His ways to the glory of His holy name.

Let us make a New Year's resolution to join together as the people of God in faith as we worship in Sacrament and Word, offering ourselves as a living sacrifice to God. The church is still the place where we can come together in times of struggle and find strength from being in the midst of the Body of Christ. May we all find the blessing of healing and health in the coming year.

Peace and Blessings,

Namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. (2 Corinthians 5:19)

For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have life eternal. (John 3:16)

As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, yo will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in His love. (John 15:9-10)
